

Noelle Fletcher

---

NoelleCFletcher11@gmail.com

WORK EXPERIENCE

Ecologist

Ecological Studies

May 2020 to present

Leads team surveys, habitat assessments, and relocations for federally listed species including California red-legged frogs, coast horned lizards, San Joaquin kit foxes, and western pond turtles in accordance with state and federal permitting.

Marketing and Events Coordinator

Pacific Grove Museum of Natural History

February 2022 to Present

Coordinates and run annual events and exhibitions for the public, manages professional social media channels, coordinates the public image and release of marketing materials on behalf of the Museum including press releases, newsletters, printed collateral, and annual campaigns.

Volunteer and Community Outreach Coordinator

Watsonville Wetlands Watch

March 2018 to January 2022

Created outreach materials including newsletters and event flyers, managed social media, represents WWW at school and community gatherings, organized events, ran volunteer and community science programs, partnered with the city to implement stormwater education programming for elementary students.

Environmental Educator

California Department of Fish and Wildlife

October 2016 to February 2018

Educated school groups and members of the public on a variety of scientific topics surrounding Elkhorn Slough, including water quality and basic ecology principles, and maintained various databases.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Northern Arizona University
Flagstaff, AZ

Master's Degree in Environmental
Science and Policy 2016

GPA: 3.67

Sonoma State University
Rohnert Park, CA

Bachelor's Degree in Environmental
Studies and Planning
2012

GPA: 3.76

VOLUNTEER WORK

Volunteer Social Media Coordinator

Wholehearted Community Chorus
2018 to 2020

Ran chorus's social media pages and boosted public awareness and attendance

Food Coordinator

Carmel High School Desert Trip
2009 to present

Planned, budgeted, and coordinated food shopping and preparation for a week-long camping trip of 50 high school students and 30 staff